

Anglia November training, assessment and social in the Peak District

Date: 3-5 November 2023

Cost: £135 for training / assessment
£80 for social walking

Catering: Fully catered.

Location: Whitely Wood in the Peak District, near Sheffield.

Accommodation: Bunkhouse-style with heated indoor showers. Camping also possible.

Do you want to be able to take your girls on adventures outside? From nature trails to hillwalking, this weekend is for you.

Join us for: level 1 and the water safety module, level 2 training or assessment, or for log book walks/social walking

View from Stanage Edge

Who's it for? Members aged 16+

For level 1, participants need to be able to walk at a gentle pace for approximately 3 hours each day on paths in lowland areas. For level 2, participants need to be able to walk in hilly terrain, sometimes off path for 5 hours on Saturday plus 2 hours night navigation and then 3 hours on Sunday.

What is it? Training will be facilitated in small groups of up to six people, with a relaxed & friendly atmosphere. There will be some online training in advance of the courses.

Travel: Own travel – we suggest lift sharing and will help facilitate that where possible.

E-mail your regional walking lead volunteers, Alison Tuch and Moira Ledbetter, walking@girlguiding-anglia.org.uk to book or for a chat about the walking scheme.