About this challenge badge

We have designed this pack to look like a book but we understand that you may do all your reading electronically, on your phone or Kindle - that led us to the design of the badge.

This challenge is for people of all ages and reading abilities. It's a way to fall in love with books for the first time or to fall back in love with them. We want you to use this badge as an opportunity to learn more about 'books' so we've arranged the challenge in to sections about many parts of the book production process. This way you can learn a little bit more about how your favourite books came to be what they are today.

Rainbows should do at least one activity in each of 3 sections

Brownies should do one from at least 4 sections

Guides, Rangers, Young Leaders, Inspire, Trefoil and Leaders must complete something from each of the 5 sections

Don't forget to ask your parents to share what you have created!

Dear Jacqui

Many thanks for your email and for sharing your badge designs.

The badges are fine and meets requirements except for a minor amendment is needed to the trefoil, which needs to have a white keyline and needs to be produced in the pantone colour of 2718.

Once this has been amended I can confirm the badges meet our branding requirements and is OK to produce.

If you prefer we can check the image again when the trefoil has been corrected.
